Joan's nearly four decade career spans from the microphone to the studio and pen. As a vocalist, songwriter, producer, and manager; Joan has successfully recreated, rebuilt and rearranged her career with enthusiasm and passion as strong and melodic as her vocal gift. She began her musical career singing in the choir of her Baptist church, studied classical voice, and is currently a member of the Motown Legends Gospel Choir. Her Grammy nominated jazz project "Excitable", and new hit single "Hey Love", will enrapture, captivate, and uplift!

What the Critics around the world and in Detroit are saying

"Vocalist Joan Belgrave's tribute to Dinah Washington was swinging Dinah-style from the get-go. --The Jazz Police from the 2013 Detroit Jazz Festival"

"Vocalist (Joan) Belgrave deserved the standing ovation..., transporting patrons (of the theatre) to a smoky nightclub with her soulful voice"- NATANGA SMITH-Barbados, WI- *The Nation

"Belgrave's voice is so soothing and sexy, she could give a pit bull goose bumps" Charles Latimer- *Detroit Metro Times

"A class act...gospel, jazz, blues and neo soul... Joan is the evolution of the blues"- Afrikahn Jahmal Dayvs, KKUP

SanJose, CA -- "Joan is a real treat... an act that is a must see and hear.. A great voice, well trained, her voice is deep, smooth and polished...a class act and a beautiful talent" - Paul Youngman - jazzreview.com – Toronto, Canada
